

UNITED WAY EMERGING LEADERS SOCIETY

United Way
Monterey County

WHAT IS THE EMERGING LEADERS SOCIETY?

Emerging Leaders Society is a network of community-focused leaders who promote the value of volunteering, philanthropy, and advocacy to help UWMC achieve its mission:

Engage the community and focus resources to improve lives in Monterey County.

WHAT MAKES AN EMERGING LEADER?

ELS is open to anyone 21 years and older who is committed to serving the community. ELS Members lead to make a positive local impact with their investments, participate in UWMC volunteer projects and events, and strive to gain a better understanding of the community needs to help advocate and educate others.

Emerging Leaders enjoy:

- Invitations to special events with like-minded professionals
- Connection with peers across sectors
- Opportunities to volunteer in community projects
- Opportunities to learn from community and business leaders

Emerging Leaders who make a minimum annual gift $100 to United Way are invited to participate in special events and engagements throughout the year.

For more information, visit:

UnitedWayMCCA.org/ELS

Or Contact:

Lupita.Serrano@UnitedWayMCCA.org